Notes and Instructions: Gifts in kind are gifts of tangible personal property. Generally, these are defined as non-cash donations that are directly related to fulfilling the mission of Sewickley Academy.

- Donors of gifts in kind must provide the fair market value of the item.
- The fair market value cannot be listed as "priceless".
- For gifts in kind of $5,000 and above, the IRS requires that an independent appraisal be obtained. The donor is responsible for obtaining and assuming the cost of the appraisal.
